Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Submission to the Inter-jurisdictional Emissions Trading Working Group

I refer to your recent correspondence of 5 October 2005 from the Inter-jurisdictional Emissions Trading Working Group inviting stakeholders to make submissions on the development and design of a states-based national emissions trading scheme.

ExxonMobil as the world's largest oil and gas company and as Australia's largest integrated petroleum company is pleased to provide the following submission outlining our views.

If you have any questions about the submission please feel free to contact Rob Young at ExxonMobil Government Relations on 03 9270 3433.

Yours sincerely

Rob Young
